CFPB Director Cordray Confirmed

Following Senate confirmation, NTEU offered its congratulations to CFPB Director Richard Cordray.

In a letter to the new director, NTEU President Colleen M. Kelley told Cordray that the union looks forward to building on the promising start to NTEU's collective bargaining relationship with CFPB. Kelley sent her congratulations to Director Cordray on behalf of NTEU and Chapter 335 leaders and members.

"Working together, I believe we can maximize employees' abilities to deliver CFPB's mission to promote fair and honest treatment of the American consumer," President Kelley wrote.

Members' Meeting on Friday to Adopt Chapter Bylaws

Chapter bylaws are in the final stages of development. NTEU will host a members' meeting for Chapter 335 this Friday, July 26 to vote on and adopt the chapter bylaws.

Bylaws ensure that chapter operations are open and fair, and that all members have a say in how the chapter operates. The bylaws also establish a system for chapter votes and elections.

Only members of Chapter 335 are eligible to vote. Non-members can vote after they join NTEU. Membership forms will be available at the meeting.
