Did you take an oath
when you began your job?

Every federal employee did.

They take an oath to support and defend the Constitution of the United States of America.

This is before they embark on the critical work of protecting our nation and the food we eat, improving our quality of life, safeguarding our banking systems and collecting the revenue to keep the country running.

And there's so much more.

They may all take the same oath, but federal employees perform so many vital services for you and your family.
